

THE PENNSYLVANIA PRISON SOCIETY

Presents

How Pennsylvania's Drug Policies Affect YOU

A facilitated panel and forum to discuss drug policy and how it affects you, your family and your neighborhood.

Wednesday, May 26, 2010
11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Stocks on Second Street Restaurant
211 North Second Street
Harrisburg, PA 17101

Lunch is Provided

SEATING IS LIMITED!

Call now to reserve your seat (215-564-6005, ext. 117)
Reservations are taken on a first come, first serve basis.
For more information, call 717-379-8989

The Pennsylvania
PRISON SOCIETY
S I N C E 1 7 8 7

The Prison Society is a statewide, non-profit organization founded in 1787 to promote, just, humane and Restorative corrections and provides advocacy and direct services to prisoners, former offenders, and their families.
This Drug Policy Forum is made possible by a grant from the Drug Policy Alliance.

245 N. Broad Street, Suite 300 • Philadelphia, PA 19107 • 215-564-6005
www.prisonersociety.org • www.Facebook.com/PennsylvaniaPrisonSociety